

A Brief report of Conclave on Employment & Employability in India

Federation for World Academics (FWA) in collaboration with Maction Research organized a one-day conclave on Employment & Employability in India. The Event started with lighting the lamp by Chairman NETF, NAAC, NBA Prof. Anil D Sahasrabudhe along with guest of honour Directors IIM Jammu and Nagpur. The major takeaways in inaugural session from distinguished speakers are following. They emphasised about importance of teaching, learning, academic leadership in the lines of Viksit Bharat 2047.

- Madan Mohan Malaviya Mission Teacher Training
- IIM Academic Leadership Workshops for senior leadership
- Collaborative and interdisciplinary skill development
- Skilling, upskilling, reskilling
- Highest manufacturing of iPhone in India
- Semiconductor manufacturing units in Gujarat & Assam
- War planes manufacturing units in India shows Skill India, Made in India, Make in India
- Importance of Innovation adopting
- IKS – “T” – Learning, Multiskilled, Holistic Education (All round Development)
- Internet of Things –Internet of Ability –Internet of Behaviour
- Digital Transformation leads to Smart Universities
- Courage to Confidence
- Collaborative Programs, Research in the lines of AIMS, IIT, IIM situated in Jammu Location
- Internships – AI – Segregating students through
- Skilling up graduates is important for the students along not only with % of Marks
- Importance of Technical, Cocurricular and Extra curricular club activity is very much required in all educational Institutions focus more on generic, interdisciplinary, peer learning
- APAAR ID (ANEK) is Saraswathi Account for Students lie bank account is Lakshmi Account
- Value based Education – Universal Human Values

- Innovation – Incubation – Creation of Start-ups (1,40,000 registered) – 39th Position for India in Innovation
- SIH/IDEAs Contest –Diversity – at least one woman in each activity

After inaugural Session Prof. Anil D Sahasrabudhe along with other IIM Directors distributed the FWA Exemplary Awards for individuals served for the field of Higher Education & Research

Its fortunate for me to receive the Award conferred to Dr. A. S. Ganesan, our beloved Chancellor for his “Exemplary Leadership in Building great Institution of Science & Research in India” from the Chief Guest & other Guest of Honour.

Followed by Two Academic Sessions were conducted with the esteemed panellists consists of Vice Chancellors and Directors from different Universities from across PAN India. The Themes of Two Academic Sessions on “Leveraging India’s Demographic Dividend:Present & Future” and “Navigating the shift in Skill landscape in India:Challenges &Way Forward”. I am one of the Panellists for the session 2.

Later IIRF Education Impact Awards 2025 were presented. Our university got the Award for “Exceptional Leadership in Medical Science and Research”. I received the award on behalf of Our University.

I take this opportunity to Thank Management and Vice Chancellor, Pro-Vice Chancellor for nominating me to receive the Awards on behalf of our Chancellor and University.

Prof. Dr. B. Sridhar Reddy.

Director – Accreditation & Ranking.

PHOTO'S

